MANY ATTRACTIONS.

PLANS FOR GREATER LOUISVILLE EXPOSITION OPENING MAR. 18.

BASE-BALL GAMES SPECIAL DAYS.

Louisville Extends a Most Cordial Invitation To All To Visit Louisville at This Time.

As the time for the opening of the Greater Louisville Exposition draws near, the interest in that great event in this and all other sections of the State of Kentucky, as well as throughout the South, is greatly increased. The visitors to Louisville will return home and give expressions of deep interest in the exposition and pride in the enterprise and public spirit of the exposition officials working so hard in the interest of their state and city without prospect or wish for any pecuniary gain.

Showing what pride they take in their city's great enterprise, the merchants and manufacturers of Louisville have covered their envelopes and stationery almost over with advertising matter concerning the exposition, and the title, "Greater Louisville Exposition," seems to appear in the most unexpected quarters at the most unexpected times. Louisville "drummers" who visit here let no one escape, and, for no other reason, the people of Kentucky will be bound to go to Louisville between March 18 and 30 to see what has been so widely heralded as will be a matter of easy accomplishment, because the railroads of Kentucky have announced a rate of

OTTAWA.

Mr. Charley Sowder visited relatives at Preachersville a few days since.—Farmers were getting a bustle on themselves before the bad weather set in.—Reuben Walden and Arthur E. Brown left Tuesday for East Bernstadt.—Elijah Walden is on the matrimonial list. Look out girls.—Born to the wife of John T. Brown a girl baby.—J. W. Proctor has moved from this place to Quail to take care of his father—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sutton are rejoicing over the arrival of a girl baby at their home on the 19, christened Ella Jane McKee.—J. S. Cash, our hustling merchant, is doing a fine business.—The sick of this neighborhood are convalescent at this writing.—Born to the wife of John Carson a boy baby a few days since.—Henry Laswell sold his farm to a man by the name of Bradley, price unknown.—The singing at Union Ridge conducted by Jacob Elder and W. H. Owens, is progressing nicely.—Measles are raging in this section.—James Hayes sold to Mrs. Mary Brown a horse for $10.—Larkin Hicks bought of J. J. Cash a yoke of cattle for $40.—James Thompson, we are sorry to say is worse at this writing.—Messrs Claude Thompson and Jas. Harness are at home from Mt. Vernon on a visit.—J. M. Craig bought of Jesse Brown a fine bunch of hogs at 6 cents. Hurrah Tart, he is getting to be a great trader in his old days. If all people would do like Tart this would be a better country.—Elijah Wallen sold to J. J. Brown a cow, price $9.—Rev. J. T. Crocket left here for London.—Bill Sowder says he is going to get him a cook if there are any to be found.

FRED LEVY,

one fare for the round trip, with three selling dates each week, the tickets good returning until April 1. Besides these splendid rates, many single-day excursions will be run, and it is said by the railroad officials composing the Southeastern Passenger Association, that the rates for these excursions will be the best ever offered for a similar enterprise.

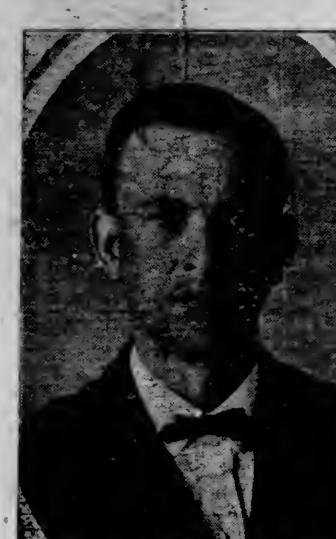

The Division of Programme of the exposition is now busily engaged in preparing the plans for various special days. Interesting programmes will be arranged for these special days, and the music by the great Creatore's band will be an added attraction to the exposition twice daily. This band of sixty renowned soloists is recognized everywhere as being absolutely the foremost organization of its kind, and the twice-daily concerts will be included in the extraordinarily low price of admission, which will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children. For special days, Creatore has very graciously consented to make his programme typical of the occasion. The following days have been decided upon, and plans are in train to make each one an unique success: Dedication Day, Edison Day, Children's Day, Greater Louisville Falls City Day, All Kentucky Day, Fraternal Day, Transportation Day, Woman's Day, University Day, Music Day, Newspaper Day and Get-away Day.

It will be of interest to lovers of the national game to know that the Louisville baseball team will contest with two major league teams during the exposition period, playing five games in all. It can be seen that the people of Kentucky will have a splendid opportunity of seeing the Greater Louisville Exposition, hear Creatore's famous band, and see such magnificent baseball organizations as the Chicago National League team and the Boston Americans. Boston will play three games, March 23, 24 and 25, while Chicago will play two games, March 28 and 29. Louisville will certainly hold vast interest for Kentuckians during the period of March 18-30.

Displayed upon the walls of the exposition Building in Louisville will be seen the trademarks and labels of Louisville merchants and manufacturers. This riot of color will be spread in a broad band around the building, and will add much to the general decorative scheme. These labels and trademarks will be very attractive framed, and it will be possible to gather a very plain idea of what Louisville can do by looking at these frames. This opportunity to be represented in the great exposition had been very eagerly grasped by many who are not eligible to show a manufactured product. It has been estimated that at least one-half of the manufacturers of Louisville will be represented in the trademark and label display.

A sum of money estimated at about $175,000 has disappeared from the sub treasury in Chicago, and Government officials are making an investigation.

THE GIRLS IN BUSINESS

The truth is that the girls are getting the better of the boys in many lines of genteel employment. The boys may complain of this as they will, but the fact stands. The young women in most all the towns, after a certain hour, are quite as much in evidence on their way to work as the young men; and the man at the window can see that they look trim and neat, that they hold up their heads as if they were ready to meet the world and their employers. They have none of the appearance of having deprived themselves of the necessary amount of sleep, or of carrying a headache along with them. Indeed on a frosty morning it is pleasant too see how their eyes sparkle and how their cheeks glow. They are getting the better of the boys because they can be trusted to come to their work in good form. They may not be as strong as the boys, but they take care of their strength. They don't smoke, they don't chew, they don't drink; they don't gamble, they don't loaf. Society puts up arbitrary rules for the girls, and they must abide by them or lose caste. The boys are suffered to make their own rules and take the consequences. Many a boy thinks he can be gay and deceive everybody, and he runs along until he loses his job. By that time he is apt to think that somebody has undermined him, and to look quite past himself in an attempt to locate the guilty party. Business is all the time putting up bars against the gay young man. Positions of responsibility, positions of trust, positions requiring reliability and regularity are being closed against him. He may not see that he is bounced because he is not honest, for he may be able to swear with clear conscience that he never took so much as a nickle in his life that did not belong to him. But he has taken time that did not belong to him. He has had to be sent for. He hasn't been faithful. He has lied as to why he was late, and to where he was last night. He has gone upon the theory that it was nobody's business how he occupied his time outside business hours. Yet the growth of a bad character if you are at all close to it, is about as obvious as the growth of a corn field. The prudent businessman does not always wait until he has a case in court. He prefers to settle the little things with his employers before they have gone that far. Business is becoming more and more exacting on the point of individual character. It is looking out for integrity, and it is saying that whatever the head of the house is the salary list must be clear. This demand opens a wide door to the girls, and there is only one way in which it can be closed against them, and that is to meet the competition, and by the removal of it through consolidation.

A GREAT CHESTNUT.

There is probably no man engaged in the newspaper business in this state, who is not acquainted with a man whose excuse for discontinuing his subscription is that he already "has more papers than he can read." It is only an excuse offered to ameliorate the presumed laceration of the editor's feelings. It has no such effect, for in the first place an editor never worries over the loss of a subscriber except when he leaves the country without paying up arrearages. But why not be truthful and say to the honest newspaper man just what you feel in your heart. Go into his den, ask him how much you owe, pay the delinquency and tell him frankly that you don't want his disreputable blackguard sheet any longer. Say to him in a sorrowful tone of voice that you deeply regret his inability to publish a newspaper worthy the name and advise him to sell his plant to some man with a thimble full of brains and seek some occupation which does not require much wear and tear of mind. Do this and then you can go away with the comforting assurance that the editor respects you for your candor and will cherish no hard feelings because you choose to borrow his paper instead of buying it.

For the benefit of those who allow printer's ink as a prime factor to the advancement of their interests, we should state that Samson—the strong party—was the first man to advertise. He took two solid columns to demonstrate his strength, and several thousand people "tumbled" to the scheme. He brought down the house.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Missouri's two cent fare bill has passed the Legislature and been sent to the Governor. By a vote of 15 to 11 the Texas Senate voted to discharge the probating committee and endorse Senator J. W. Bailey. The action followed spirited debate.

The Democrats in the Indiana Legislature won one of its few victories of the present session when they secured the advancement of the new primary bill, one of the measures advocated by the party during the recent election.

GRIFFINS MILL.

Not much news in these diggins.—Our old friend and neighbor J. M. Hurst, who has been confined to his room all fall, and winter thinks he will be able to stir around some as soon as the weather moderates.—The last report says that Marion Pitman and family, who have been confined for some time with typhoid fever, are slowly improving.—Dee Ramsey and family of Marengo, were visiting at Gains Cummins Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Cummins and her two little ones, Malissa and Roy, were visiting relatives in Pulaski county last week.—Grip has attacked almost every family in this vicinity.—Craig Eider, of near Stanford, visited relatives here and Bee Lick during the past week.—Charley Latham and Epson Broyles passed through Saturday en route to Stanford with a bunch of cattle and hogs. That's right, boys, come on and buy our farm products, and we will try to raise more and we'll all have money.—J. L. Hasty, who has been suffering from heart trouble, we are glad to say is improving.—B. G. Mullins, of Pine Hill, was here last Friday attending to some important business matters.

The old blue back speller says that Friday is just as lucky a day as any other. It further says that those that would thrive in the world should rise early in the morning. I have been trying to adopt this rule: I try to rise by six and not later than seven at the farthest. Well, sir, me and Gaius Cummins grubbed and cut briars nine days in succession last week, and you know it snowed Wednesday night, or we would have worked the other three days.—Who's keeping account of the snows? I've counted two since my last report, 20 more yet to fall. Look out for March and April, and if like it was 10 or 11 years ago, I might say May, too.—The cackle of the old hens during the two weeks pretty weather kept Cinda and the children busy running to the hen house. (Cinda is the old woman you know.)—How many started in the 1st of Jan to keep an account of the products sold, and the amount of dry goods, groceries, etc., bought. Try this plan and at the end of the year you will be surprised. If you didn't begin with January commence the 1st of March.

Some of our neighbor farmers want to cut down sycamores while they are frozen, and they won't sprout any more. Suppose we try it, it will only cost us a little labor on a cold day.—I will now give the names of some of the old men living in this vicinity: when I was quite a small boy: Uncle Simeon Denney, who lived to be 102 years of age; J. M. Thompson, Henry Todd, Hiram Soeder, W. H. DeBord, M. W. DeBord, John McLemore, Wright McLemore, Wilson Denney, Baily Hicks, Larkin Pumphrey, Robert Taylor, Thos. Lawrence, Joseph Craig, Joseph Cummins, Vincent Poynter, James Ping, Gold Ping, Logan Brown, James Brown, the father of the late J. N. Brown and Blind Jonas Brown, the grandfather of the writer. All of these as well as our beloved teacher, J. N. Brown, have passed from the stage of action, and we hope are enjoying all the happiness that heaven means, while Uncle John Hurst, W. G. Proctor, Logan Denney, John Major are still living and battling with the suffering and troubles of this world.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, Rev. Oliver M. Wallen, a devout member of Ashland Lodge No. 640 F. & A. M. during a short stay at Sonora, Tex., whether he had gone in a vain quest for health, was removed from suffering in earth to the celestial lodge above, therefore be it resolved:

That, while we deplore the death of our beloved brother, and grieve at the loss we have sustained by his absence from among us, we submit with reverence to the edict that has called him home, and feel the blessed assurance that our loss is his eternal gain.

That, we extend to the widow and family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of great bereavement, and command them to cast their cares upon Him who doeth all things well,

That, a page he set apart in the record book of Ashland Lodge No. 640 F. & A. M. as a memorial, and that these resolutions be spread thereon; that a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother, and a copy to the Mt. Vernon Signal for publication.

Mr. Walker McQueary, of Sulphur Springs Colo., who has been in Rockcastle and Pulaski counties since Dec. 26, will leave Sunday on his way back to his western home, however he does not expect to arrive there before April 10th, as it is his intention to spend a few days in Lincoln county and then go on to Missouri for about a month's visit. Mr. McQueary says he finds but few things even his old home as he remembered it 40 years ago, many of his boyhood chums are dead, others, following his example have gone to other states to seek their fortune.

He says he has had a most delightful visit and although absent for almost a half century has lost none of the fondness for his old Kentucky home.

Submitted to a galling fire of questions, E. H. Harriman was on the stand five hours before the Interstate Commerce Commission in New York. Features of the examination were an attack by counsel for the Government on the method of reorganizing and financing the Atton line and the refusal of the railroad wizard's lawyers to let him answer a question as to deals in stock claimed to be individual.

This point will be taken to the Supreme Court for decision. If the railroad attorneys are sustained it means a serious limitation of the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

H. L. THARP AND FAMILY

Samuel Ward was up from Livingston Monday to attend Masonic Lodge. Among the members present were not one that were attending years ago when he joined the order. All were new faces. Charles A. Redd, J. K. McClary, J. T. Clark, J. J. Williams and many more, of the brothers of the mystic tie, have entered that mansion not made with hands eternal in the Heaven." But few of them remain.

Wade Graves, owner of the Hansford Telephone Co., has extended the line from Hansford to Pong and placed a phone in the store of Dr. Owens. The line reached the point last Saturday and that locality is greatly pleased to quick connection with other portions of the county and state. The line will be extended to Line Creek in a short time. Mareburg will also be added to the system via Webb at an early date.

COMMISSIONER'S LAND SALES—Master Commissioner, G. S. Griffin sold five tracts of land at the front door of the court house here Monday. The Gaines Adams farm was bought by David Hysinger at $1000; the Phillips and Saord tract was bid in by William Phillips at $900; The Bank of Mt. Vernon became the purchaser of the J. R. Stucky property at Livingston for $150; the Newcomb land near Brodhead went to W. A. Tyree at $150, and the Mrs. Ferguson farm to Luther Manus at $25.

DEAD:- Mr. Albert Butner, aged 76, died Tuesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Cass, at Brodhead, after an illness of three weeks of pneumonia. For several years he had been a sufferer of asthma and when the strong grip of pneumonia seized him, his feeble constitution could not withstand the heavy strain. A truly pure and noble man gone to his reward. He leaves one son, John Butner, East St. Louis, Ill. and two daughters, Mesdames J. R. Cass and H. L. Tharp. The remains were laid to rest Wednesday in the Baptist church cemetery beside his wife who preceded him nineteen years. Peace to his ashes, glory to his immortal soul.

L. M. Owens was here from Goochland Monday and told us that it is something awful how the mails between here and that point are being handled. The SIGNAL will report the matter to us we will see that it is promptly reported to the authorities at Washington. It Uncle Sam would only give some of the drones who are pretending to handle the mails a rest about six months twice a year, it would be a great blessing to the people.

There is a "beauty contest" on a Chicago paper lays claim to having not only the most beautiful woman in America but in the world. Two millionaires, one of New York the other of Chicago got into an argument as to the beautiful women of New York and Chicago. They made a bet of $50,000 as to the rivalry between the two cities. The Chicago man spent $25,000 in advertising for photographs of beautiful women, the board of awards decided upon a Chicago girl as against New York. The Courier Journal says Chicago's claim of having the most beautiful woman in America is preposterous and calls upon all Kentuckians to send in photographs of their beautiful lady friends. Rockcastle should not forget this opportunity. Send pictures direct or to Courier Journal Correspondent Box 44 Mt. Vernon.

—Some of our citizens that have the money would improve their houses; they would rent for more money. Such a cry for houses was never heard before; and there are some empty houses too, but the houses that are empty will always be so, because they need repairing, and the owners are holding on to their dollars until you can hear the eagles "holler", and their houses are going down every day, until finally an up-to-date dog will not live in them. He bore his sufferings bravely and met death like the Christian he was, who was not afraid to leave this sinful world to meet Jesus and put on immortality. He was 55 years of age and had been a member of the Baptist church since his youth. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. J. N. Brown, of this place and Mrs. T. J. ## Seldom Wear Out

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain—not only once, but as many times as it is necessary to take them. Many persons who suffer from chronic ailments find in them a source of great relief from the suffering which they would otherwise be compelled to endure. Their soothing influence upon the nerves strengthen rather than weaken them. For this reason they seldom lose their effectiveness.

I am 62 years old and have suffered 42 years from nervous troubles, rheumatism and grippe, trouble of the heart, shortness of breath, sleeplessness, and pain around the kidneys. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have been a blessing to me. I don't know what I should do without them, and they are the only remedy I have ever used that after a few days wear out in less time than I have been using them or else the injurious results would be so great I would be obliged to cease their use.

MRS. S. C. ROBINSON,
27 Carter St., Chattanooga, Tenn.
Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money.

IN DAYS OF YORE.

By J. M.
Our local Telephone exchange can give you direct connection with Lexington, Winchester and nearly all the blue grass town on the north, and with London, Barboursville, Manchester and several other mountain towns on the south. In fact you can stay at home and talk to nearly every place, except Hades; Crab Orchard being the nearest station to that domain.—Kentucky Colon 1 Nov. 2, 1901.

Dave Jackson, of London, called on us to day. "Smiling Dave" probably acquired this euphemous title from the fact that he published a country paper for a year without starving to death, for which he smiles a very continuous smile.—[SIGNAL, Nov. 1887.]

John Flynn, of Brodhead, aged forty five years, has just recovered from a spell of sickness. For twenty-seven years he has had steady work as track-walker on the Brodhead section, Knoxville division of the Louisville & Nashville railroad. The section is nine miles long, which he "doubles" each day. He worked 9,735 days at $1 per day, and walked in the twenty-seven years 175,230 miles, and says he is good for several thousand more. His regularity of passing over the section was so accurate that farmers along the route would set their clocks by him when they saw him pass—Kentucky Colonel, 1901.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let her help you?

It is now thought that the bill providing for an increase in the pay of the officers of the army has no chance of passing at this session of Congress.
